The-MODERN-Day Bible Translations

An Expose' On The-Problems In Modern-Day Translations

Exerts From Robert Young, of Young's Analytical Concordance To The Bible and YOUNG'S Literal Translation of the HOLY BIBLE:

"The inspiration of the Bible extends only to the original text, as it came from the pens of the original writers, therefore, not to any of the 'translations' ever made by man, however aged, venerable, or good ; and only, in so far as any of these adhere to the original – neither adding to nor omitting from it one particle – are they of any real value, to the extent that they vary from the original, the doctrine of verbal inspiration is lost, so far as that version is concerned."

"A strictly literal rendering may not be so pleasant to the ear, as one where the apparent sense is chiefly aimed at, yet it is not euphony but truth that ought to be sought, and where in such a version as the one commonly in use in this country, there are scarcely two consecutive verses where there is some departure from the original, such as those indicated, and where these variations may be counted by tens of thousands, as admitted on all hands, it is difficult to see how verbal inspiration can be of the least practical use to those who depend upon that version alone."

Paraphrasing Robert Young.... There is NO 'Future' tense in Hebrew, future tense is expressed as 'present' tense.

Other Problems With The-Translations:

... "the Hebrew verb nathan (sometimes also a noun), which is rendered by the King James translators in sixty-seven different ways"... -- Robert Young.

The above final Quote by Young, expresses what CAN NOT BE, if one is guided towards the-truth in the scripture. It is IMPOSSIBLE for one English word, to do the business for sixty-seven other Hebrew, or Greek words. This expresses nothing other than a FRAUD in our modern day translations. Perhaps this is the reason King James had his 'lamp put out,' which is an idiom that means, having your seed-line cut off; which is what happened when his son, King Charles had his head cut off. In other words, the 'evidence' is, that King James was cursed.

IN essence, the King James Bible is merely a theft of intellectual property, that was stolen from William Tyndale. The KJV is in all actuality, ninety-percent William Tyndale, and all the KJV Translators had to do, was to REMOVE anything, that had the potential to really set someone free from the government. They didn't want that.

The above statement is a FACT of history that anyone can research for themselves, as I am looking at my copy of Tyndale in front of me as I make this statement. Another fact is that, Tyndale's Introduction is the most sophisticated introduction in ALL of modern translation history. William Tyndale was in essence, an enlightened intellectual genius! The only thing that the KJV 'controllers' had to do was to destroy the great work of Tyndale, cover it's true origin and then take credit for what was merely the illusion of 'religious freedom'. See, Appendix A.

... The Enlightened only want The-Truth, and deep from the trees root... It Is All An Open Secret !

... "Now I have heard it declared by some, who say that: 'Unless I can find it written in the original writings, I will not recognize it to be written within my own scriptures.' But then, once it has been plainly revealed to them, that this is the way that it has been written; they then respond back with what is laying there before them, within their own corrupted texts."

| 17 For the law was given by Moses, [but] grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. 18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared [him]. 19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? 20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No. 22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? 23 He said, I [am] the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. 24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; | for-all, is the-favor-for-all: 17 Now the-written-shælter and law was given, by the-hand of Moshæl, Moses, while, the-favor-for-all and the-Truth from the-Trees-Root, came by the-way of Jesus, the-Moshæl'yanchi, that is, the-Messiah. 18 No flesh-and-blood can see, YHVH, at any-time; yet, the-only-ængendered pure-t'Seed and Son, who lives within the-nurturing-breast of the-Father, he, the-æye, makes the-declaration for Him. 19 Here is the report from Yah'channon, when the-Yudeans sent the-chonan-priests and Levites from *Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art you? 20 Then the-eye, he confessed, and did not deny; but expressed-clearly, I am not the-Messiah. 21 So they asked him once more; Then, who are you? Are you El-Iash? Then the-eye breathed, No, I am not. Are you then, the-One-who-comes, the-Messiah? Again he replied, No. 22 So, they breathed before him again, Who are you then? We need to know, so that, we can make an account and give your reply, back to those who sent us. Who do you claim to be then? 23 The-eye, he breathed, 'The-eye-with-a-voice, one who makes his declaration within the-desert, it is tyme to make the way clear, for the-Healer-and-pure-Breather-of-Lyghte.' It is just like the-visionary Esh'iyash breathed. 24 Some of those who were sent there, were of the-Pharosheim, the-Pharisees. 25 So, in turn, they questioned him, by breathing before him, 'Why do you purify with water then, if you are not the-Messiah, nor El-Iash, nor any other visionary? 26 Yah'channon then replied before them, by breathing, I purify with water: but there is One, who is standing at your center, living and eating with you, the- | 17 Shælter, or shelter, is the correct original-word for 'law,' It was later corrupted by the priesthood and became 'shetar.' The-trees-root, is a correct original-thought for 'truth,' |

| 27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. 28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing. 29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. 30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me. 31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. 32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. 33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. 34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God. | One, who you do not know; 27 He is the-æye and the-One, who comes right after me, but he is preferred over me, being before me, the-One whose inheritance, I am not even worthy to receive. 28 This is what occurred, in Bet'Habar, past the-Yor'dan, where Yah'channon was purifying. 29 The-very-next-day, Yah'channon saw Jesus, walking up to him, and he shouted out-loud; 'Here Lives the-Truth, but, you-must-see-and-read-it-for-yourself, the-only-pure, sacrificial-Lamb of Ælovehe, who can take away the-sin of the-æye-that-is-closed, within the-darkness of this world. 30 This is the-æye of whom I breathed, 'Behind me there comes a-blood-of-the-æarth, who is preferred before me: for this eye, he is the-One, who is prior to my existence;' 31 And even I did not know him, who is the-One-of-the-many: 'cept that the-æye, should be revealed before *Yishrael, so, for this reason, I now come purifying with water, on the-Alter-of-Life. 32 So, Yah'channon, made the-declaration, by breathing, I saw the-Lyghte of the-pure-Breath within the-wind-of-Fire coming down, through an opening in the-clouds, with the-radiant brightness of a pure-white-dove, and it focused directly upon him, while he stood there within the water. 33 Yet, I could not know him: 'cept the-ÆEye, that sent me to purify with water, The-One breathed within me, 'Upon the-One, that you will clearly see the-great-Breath-of-the-t'Svn, lighting down upon, and remaining focused on him, the-same-One is the-æye, and it is he, who will purify with the-great-Breath-of-the-Wind-of-Fire. 34 Therefore, I see, and carry that Record with me, declaring that, this is the-true and the-pure-t'Seed-of-the-Svn. | 28 Yor'dan implies, The-Age-of-pure-Judgement, within the-river-of-Life. 31 'Walter' means 'control;' and the-words 'water' and alter, are both derived from this same word, thus, they are synonymous terms. You can also see 'ater,' within water, which implies that a river is a snake, but in the metaphor, we are also serpents. The word, lucifer, actually means, the-true-Cipher. A cipher is a 'code,' and taking control of our words with our minds, by controlling all of our diction, is actually, in reality, what she did. Do you get the picture yet? You are supposed to be the master over the words, not, the words being the master over you. 33 'Svn,' is synonymous with, son and sun; but, no one ever told you this. The 'v' stands for the virgin Eve, of whom Mary, the-mother of Jesus, then became the-symbol. |

| 13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, | 13 Now, the Yudean' Phāyshoch, or pass-over was going on, so Jesus decided to go up to Yah'ershalom. | |
| 14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: | 14 When he arrived, he found within the-temple, merchants who were selling oxen, sheep, and doves; along with the-bankers, who were sitting there to exchange the-Roman coin, for the-temple money, and all for a-profit. | |
| 15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; | 15 He then made for himself, a whip of small ropes tied together, and he used this, to drive them all out of the-pure-Temple, along with the-stench of the-sheep and the-oxen; then he pushed over the-tables of the-bankers; | |
| 16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise. | 16 And he breathed before the merchants that were selling the-doves, Get these cages out of here; you will not make my Father's-House a-merchant's bazaar. | 16 Not to mention, the priests were getting a percentage of the-profits. |
| 17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. | 17 Then, his Disciplin'ed recalled what was written; The zeal for my house has consumed me. | |
| 18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? | 18 So the Yudeans challenged him, and breathed before him, What sign can you provide for us, since you are compelled to do this? | |
| 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. | 19 Jesus replied and breathed before them, I will tear-down this Temple, and then, after three days, it will be restored. | |
| 20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? | 20 So the Yudeans responded, This Temple was under construction for forty-six years, and you, are going to rebuild it in only three days? | |
| 21 But he spake of the temple of his body. | 21 But he was speaking about the-temple of his own body. | |
| 22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. | 22 This was the event that allowed his Disciplin'ed, when he rose from the dead, to remember that he had pressed this into them; so that they could comprehend the-scripture, and the-Burning-t'Swords-of-Fire within the-words, that Jesus had breathed. | 22 Burning-sword-of-pure-fire, is a original-thought for 'word.' BY THOMAS WARD

25, ANGLESEA STREET, DUBLIN,

1st July, 1841

- PREFACE TO THE FOURTH EDITION -

The publication of “Ward’s Errata to the Protestant Bible” has disclosed a most curious and important fact, that the scriptural church of England and Ireland was originally founded on a false translation of the scriptures. It was the boast of the first reformers that, they had emancipated their disciples from the shackles of Catholic despotism, and had restored to them the freedom of the children of God : it now appears, that this ‘freedom’ consisted in reading an erroneous version of the inspired sacred writings, and venerating as the dictates of eternal Wisdom the blunders of ignorant, or interested [people with something to gain] translators. “The scriptures,” they exclaimed, “... are the sole rule of faith. Here they are, no longer concealed under the obscurity of a learned language, but exhibited to you in your native tongue. Here you will easily detect the errors of Popery, and learn the true doctrine of the Gospel.” The credulity of multitudes accepted with joy the proffered boon ; the new teachers were hailed as apostles commissioned by heaven ; and every old woman, both male and female, that could read, became an adept, if not in the knowledge of the Bible, at least in the prejudices and errors of its translators.

It is not for man to dispute the wisdom of Providence, and arraign at the bar of his private judgement the means which God may choose for the diffusion of religious knowledge. Otherwise, I must confess, there appears to me something very unaccountable in the scriptural blunders of the apostles of the reformation. The object, they said, of their mission was the dissemination of evangelic truth. If the Holy Spirit selected them for this important office, he must also have gifted them with the true knowledge of the scriptures, and, if he gifted them with the true knowledge of the scriptures, it seems to follow that he ought also to have granted them the power to make a true translation of the scriptures. The apostles of Jesus received the knowledge of tongues, that they might instruct the different nations of the earth : the apostles of the church of England and Ireland ought to have received the knowledge of, at least, the Hebrew and Greek tongues, that they might form an accurate version of the scriptures. Such a version was as necessary to that church, as the instructions of the first apostles could be to the primitive churches of Christianity. If they were apostolical, she was scriptural. However, without speculating on the cause, the fact is certain, not only from the arguments of Ward, but even from the concessions of his adversaries, that the fathers of this scriptural church gave it a version of the scriptures abounding with errors. And here it may reasonably be asked, whence arose these errors? Were they the offspring of ignorance, or design? Dr. Ryan warmly contends for the former, and endeavors to fortify his opinion by the authority of Father Simon : (a) but then, even admitting his assertions, devoid as they are of proof, and liable to objection, what are we to think of the temerity of these men, who, incompetent to the task, and conscious of their incompetency, still presumed to violate the purity of the sacred volumes, and to obtrude on their unsuspecting disciples an erroneous version as the immaculate Word of God, and as the sole and infallible guide to religious truth? Ward, on the contrary, attempts to show that the more important of their errors were committed by design ; and a curious circumstance it is, highly corroborative of his opinion, that most of their blunders are favorable to their own peculiar doctrines, and unfavorable to those of their opponents. But, if this be true, what judgement can any unprejudiced man form of these saints of the reformation? For my part, I know of no crime more foul in its own nature, more prejudicial in its consequences, more nearly allied to diabolic malignity, than that of designedly corrupting the holy scriptures, and, by such corruption, leading the sincere inquirer into error, and converting the food of life into the poison of death.

But, from whatever source, these false renderings proceeded, whether their authors were guided by policy, or misled by ignorance, this must be conceded, that if Ward has fairly established the fact, he is entitled to the gratitude of the impartial reader. The impartial reader, let him be Protestant, or Catholic, will, if his object be truth, thankfully receive the truth from whatever hand may present it to him. Hence, it was with no small surprise that I heard the clamour which was raised against the last edition of the "Errata." In parliament and out of parliament, in news-papers and pamphlets, it was stigmatized as an attempt to vilify the reformation, and to heap disgrace on the Established Church. "it was the work," observed an eminent senator, eminent for the only talent he possesses, that of religious calumny, "it was the work of one hundred and twenty Popish priests leagued to put down Protestantism." Such nonsense hardly deserves notice. If facts are to be hidden from the eye of the public, because they reflect on the character of our predecessors, let history at once be condemned to the flames. The evangelists did not conceal the treachery of Judas : why should Protestant divines wish to conceal the blunders, or the frauds of the fathers of their church?

To me, it appears, that none among the adversaries of Ward have had the courage, or the honesty to do justice to that writer. His object in compiling the "Errata," was twofold : Firstly, to prove that the versions of the scriptures on which the established creed was originally founded were extremely corrupt : and, Secondly, to show that though many errors have been since corrected, there still remain many others to correct. All this however they prudently overlook ; and by an artful confusion of times and persons, by referring to modern Bibles, the charges which he makes against those of a former age, and by affecting to consider his accusation of the clergy of Queen Elizabeth as directed against the clergy of the present reign, they pretend to convict him of misrepresentation and calumny. In this, perhaps, they may act wisely ; they certainly act unfairly. Could they have shown that Ward had attributed to the ancient English Bible errors which it did not contain, or that he had attributed to the present Bibles errors which have been corrected in them, they might have substantiated their charges against him. But this they have not attempted. They content themselves with exclaiming that many of the former corruptions have been corrected, and therefor should not have been mentioned. But why should they not? The very fact of their having been corrected is an unanswerable proof of Ward's assertion. It shows beyond the possibility of a doubt, that, the church of England, however scriptural, it may pretend to have been in its origin, was in reality founded on a false version of the scriptures ; a version which was the very Babel of confusion, which spoke sometimes the language of God and often the language of men, which had attempted to improve the lessons of eternal truth by the addition of the whims, the ignorance, the prejudices, and the falsehoods of Tyndale, Coverdale, Cranmer, Bishops, Geneva, &c., &c. *

PTRP - Notes & References :

Among the opponents of Ward, the fiercest and the only one who has attempted a full refutation of the "Errata," is Dr. Ryan. His attempt is a consequence of the grant of Ireland which Adrian IV. made to Henry II. Nay, start not, gentle reader ; the most important events may often be traced to remote and almost imperceptible causes. The attempt of Dr. Ryan is a consequence of the grant of Ireland by Adrian IV. to Henry II. By that grant the Ryans lost an extensive property ; (a) and the present Dr. is the champion reserved by heaven to revenge on Popery the injuries which she inflicted on his ancestors six centuries ago. An awful lesson this is, to the ambition of princes!

(a) Ryan's Analysis, p.5. Simon, however, in the passage referred to, does not speak of the English translator in particular, but of the Protestant translators in particular, but of the Protestant translators in general. This Dr. Ryan has thought fit to conceal from his readers.

* This is why, when you compare all of the early versions of the 'bibles,' they all appear to be virtually the same, with very little difference, or identical. This is the very proof a designed 'control.'

Go and compare at least three versions of Homer, and you will see that, each translators own version, does not even appear the same, as another translators version of Homer; and sometimes it is very difficult to even follow both translations side, by side; which simply proves out, that these ancient words are fluid and impregnated with many, many implications and meanings, that are not at all being rendered within our own sacred scriptures.

Emphasis' added are bold and, or in [brackets].

Dear Friends :

Your Support Is Needed.

On The Day before New Years Day, I embarked on the Greatest Mission of My entire life, with 35 Years of Preparation, all in order to do this.

I, Am, 'Literally' Making History, by, being the only one ever, with-in our Modern Time, to connect the Modern 'Western' Thought, with-in the Original' Eastern Thought, which is all, based upon Symbolisim and the Imagery that is all found around us, with-in nature.

Please Review, A 'Sample' Of The 'Original' Gospel' on 'the attached' of This E-Mail, The 'Gospel of Thomas,' in The Appendix, Above, and Then Review, The REAL DaVinci CODE Dictionary and Thesar-Roole, that 'Reveals' The True Nature, For Many of The Most Important Words, that we are dealing with, with-in our Modern & Ancient Time; Including a whole array of Revealed, Oc Cultic, Legal Terms.
